MISSISSIPPI BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

On June 17, 2011, Lt. Eric Johnson with the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation assigned Agent Trent Weeks a case that originated with the Meridian Police Department. The case was concerning the death of Christian Andreacchio that occurred on February 26, 2014. Lt. Johnson was contacted by Lt Col Gail Mills with the MS Highway Patrol and the Andreacchio family and asked to review the case.

Meridian Police Department Detective Damarcus Wilburn was the lead detective on the case. Detective Wilburn had come to the conclusion after his investigation that the gunshot wound was self-inflicted and had ruled it as a suicide.

On June 24, 2014, at approximately 13:00hrs Lt. Johnson, agent Weeks and agent Lee meet Rae and Todd Andreacchio at Troop H in Meridian MS to discuss Christian's death and advise them the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation would be reviewing the case file. Rae and Todd said that they did not believe that Christian would have shot himself. The Andreacchio family had already fired two different private investigators after they concluded that Christian's death was a suicide.

Agent Weeks, along with Attorney General Investigators Welch and Odom, reviewed all the evidence that was gathered by Detective Wilburn and the Meridian Police Department. Agent Weeks, Odom and Welch then proceeded to investigate further and re-interview several potential suspects/witnesses, along with inspecting the apartment where the incident occurred. MBI had the Mississippi Crime Lab conduct a forensic test on the weapon that was used and gather any potential DNA that might have been on the weapon. Agent Weeks obtained both of Andreacchio's phones from the Andreacchio family to have a forensic analysis conducted in an effort to gather any available information that would aid in developing additional leads in the case or possibly offer more insight into Andreacchio's death.

Agent Weeks, along with Investigators Welch and Odom interviewed Dallas Steele and Jennifer Culpepper at their residence. Culpepper is the step-mother of Dallas. They were not able to provide any additional information relevant to the investigation. Matthu Miller and Jett Miller were interviewed and confirmed the information in their statements to Meridian PD. Agent Weeks, along with

Investigators Welch and Odom, then traveled to the scene to attempt to locate any additional evidence. Upon a close examination of the bath tub, a small circular indentation was discovered in the floor of the tub approximately below where Christian's head had come to rest. It appeared to be consistent with the size of a .45 caliber projectile. Also discovered was an indentation on the upper left side of the tub consistent with where the round may have deflected off of the tub from the floor of the tub. Photographs of both indentions were taken and are a part of this case file.

Agent Weeks, along with Investigators Welch and Odom interviewed staff at Muna Federal Credit Union as to their recollection of Dylan Swearingen coming to the bank on February 26, 2014. In Dylan's statement that he had given, he said that Christian told him to go by the bank and retrieve all of his money from his account. They remembered Dylan coming in and asking about withdrawing funds from Christian's account and further recalled advising him (Dylan) that Christian had to be present. According to employees he did not seem nervous or upset while talking to the teller. Two still photographs were obtained depicting Dylan at the bank.

Dustin Hall, an employee at Best Buy, Meridian, MS, was also located and interviewed in an effort to confirm or deny Dylan's statement that he (Dylan) had gone to Best Buy during the time frame when it is believed Christian shot himself. Hall confirmed that Dylan came in on February 26, and that he (Hall) was working on that day. Dylan looked at speakers, but he could not remember how long he stayed, nor what time he left.

During the course of the investigation, Investigators Welch and Odom attended training presented by Institute of Police Technology and Management (IPTM). The course was Advanced Techniques in Unresolved Death Investigation. Below is a report completed by Investigator Odom as it relates to the investigation:

"During the week of August 25, 2014, Investigators Ronnie Odom and Danny Welch attended a seminar entitled Advanced Techniques for Unresolved Death Investigations by the Institute of Police Technology and Management (IPTM), sponsored by the Harrison County Sheriff's Department. This seminar included group work projects and discussions of open/unresolved death investigations. After coordinating with Mississippi Bureau of Investigation (MBI) Lieutenant Eric

Johnson and Agent Trent Weeks, it was agreed that the Andreacchio case would be presented as one (1) of these cases. Present during these open seminar discussion were investigators representing numerous agencies who duties include death investigations, as well as two (2) coordinators from IPTM with extensive knowledge and experience in death investigations.

Investigators Odom and Welch briefed the group on the case, benefitted by a power point presentation with crime scene photos, an autopsy report and the 911 audio recording. The seminar was detailed to analyzing specific areas of an investigation relating to unsolved deaths in order to formulate theories and work through them to develop new leads or resolve the investigations themselves. A portion of the material applied throughout the week related to a block of instruction entitled, "Is the caller the killer?", geared toward analyzing 911 recordings using known patterns and anticipated deliveries, responses and emotional reads. After several reviews of the recording there was a unanimous determination that the 911 recording was a reflection of authentic relation to the event under scrutiny. It was believed that Dylan Swearingen's call was genuine and not staged or intended to cover-up any facts.

Additionally, the crime scene photos and a discussion of the items recovered at the scene were deliberated in detail. It was expressed that one (1) area of the crime scene that remained puzzling was the lack of blood spatter where it was expected, if the scene were not staged, moved or cleaned. After much thought, one (1) of the coordinators stated that Christian's hoodie needed to be examined to determine if there was evidence of the projectile passing through the hood and whether spatter was contained in the hood. Attempts were immediately made to locate the hoodie and it was determined that after the coroner's office forwarded it to the funeral home, it was kept for a brief period and then destroyed because it went unclaimed by any party. Furthermore, it was explained that according to responding officers the handgun found under Christian, a Kimber 1911 style .45 caliber handgun, was found with the hammer in a down position rather than a ready or cocked position; however, another round had been chambered as the gun apparently cycled. Agent Weeks had offered, after his review of documentation from the Meridian Police Department and a local private investigator hired by the family to review the case, that it was believed said handgun had possibly been 'worked on' or had a

'trigger job', resulting in a lighter trigger pull. After sharing this with the group there was an assessment that Kimber's with such work are subject to not locking the hammer back in a ready position one hundred percent of the time and it was not at all rare if the hammer fell from a ready position after cycling. Additional information concerning this was readily found with a simple internet search. (Note: As of this writing no determination had been made if in fact the handgun in question had ever been altered from its original factory condition).

During this inquiry it was determined that Christian did not display any signs of rigor upon discovery by first responders, thus discounting any theory of a massive clean-up or moving of his body from another place in the apartment and any detailed staging of the crime scene that would have taken an extensive amount of time. This was further corroborated by the recovery of the projectile and shell casing inside the bathtub where Christian was found in his final resting position. The group consensus was that the scene as depicted in the crime scene photos was genuine and although there may have been inadequate documentation to make certain determinations, the scene was supported by the evidence recovered and furthermore, by the lack of evidence in any other portion of the residence.

Another issue discussed was the results of the gunshot residue tests, presumptive tests with no strict controls. After reviewing the case it was determined that MPD used a 'wet method' of testing on all three (3) persons known to be at the scene, including Christian, Dylan and Whitley. This method of testing can have a somewhat cleansing effect; thus accounting for the crime lab's later finding that swabs taken from Christian at autopsy showed less granules than those collected from Dylan and Whitley. It was explained that the lab did not want MPD's swabs from Christian, but insisted on performing their own swabbing. This later swabbing was likely not an accurate representation of Christian's hands prior to the wet swabbing by MPD.

Christian's final resting position was also discussed in detail with no conclusive explanations drawn. It was however discussed that it was possible for Christian to have been kneeling or simply bent slightly over the tub when the gun was discharged. (Note: Weeks, Welch and Odom observed an indentation in the bottom tub at the approximate location where a mark would be anticipated when considering Christian was possibly bent over the tub, facing to the right, and the projectile passed through right to left into the bottom of the tub.) This particular issue remained somewhat open for interpretation with no exact closer. Additionally, it was believed possible that the lack of blood spatter from the gunshot wound could have been the result of heaving bleed-out directly onto any spatter in the bottom of the tub.

As a result of this presentation and group inquiry, and after an extensive evaluation of the available evidence, it was concluded that Meridian Police Department's original finding of Christian Andreacchio's death being the result of a self-inflicted gunshot wound was based on known facts with merit and supported as the correct finding in this instance. It was not debated that there were a number of questions that may never be answered as it related to the scene when trying to determine if the gunshot wound was self-inflicted. However, there was little to no evidence to support adequately any other theory."

Agent Weeks interviewed Metro One Ambulance Service personnel concerning the scene and their recollection of what they observed. One question posed stemmed from a noted discovery during the autopsy, indicating that an abrasion was discovered on the bridge of the nose of the deceased. The ambulance personnel related to Agent Weeks that the coroner stood on the tub straddling the deceased and when he lifted the body straight up by the torso, his head fell downward and the bridge of his nose struck the tub, causing the abrasion.

A Security Support Services Private Investigator's report dated March 12-17, 2014 documents, "There was a small amount of dried blood in the floor of the bathroom tub. There was blood splatter on the wall adjacent the end of the tub opposite the toilet and sink. There was blood splatter on the exterior side of the bathroom door." Agent Weeks, along with Investigators Welch and Odom ascertained information from Detective Wilburn and the ambulance personnel relevant to this report. The blood in the floor of the bathroom tub was consistent with the position of the deceased when they arrived. The blood splatter on the wall and exterior portion of the door was caused by investigators. It was explained that the shell casing had not been initially located, and there was a sheet laying on the floor next to the deceased. After the body was removed from the scene, the sheet was picked up and shaken in an attempt to locate the shell casing. The splatter on the wall and door occurred at this time. This was further corroborated by crime scene photos taken by Meridian PD prior to the removal of the body.

Dylan Swearingen was contacted by Investigator Welch, and he agreed to be interviewed. On October 15, 2014, Dylan came to Troop H MBI office for the interview. Dylan's statement was consistent with all of his previous statements as to the sequence of events surrounding the death of Andreacchio. During the interview, Dylan related that while he was on the phone downstairs with 911, he could see Whitley in the bathroom and she was sitting opposite of Christian's body from the toilet, between Christian and the wall. She had her arm over Christian's torso with her back against the tub. He was shown a crime scene photo and related that when he discovered the body, there was more of the torso outside the tub, and his knees were closer to the tub. This would explain the position of the body in the crime scene photos, because when Whitley was sitting beside the body and having the weight of her arm and partial torso leaning on Christian, it could have shifted the position of the body slightly.

On November 5, 2015, Agent Weeks, along with Investigators Welch and Odom interviewed Whitley Goodman at her attorney's Office in Meridian, MS. Her attorney is Stewart Parrish. The purpose of the interview was to ascertain any additional information she may have concerning Andreacchio. Whitley's statement was consistent with her original statement she provided to Meridian PD. She was adamant that she opened the door to the bathroom, not Dylan. She said that she held both of Andreacchio's hands and was crying while he (Dylan) was on the phone with 911. She was adamant she did not have anything to do with his death, but felt that her infidelity previously in the relationship was a contributing factor to the suicide. She did relate that the Dos Equis beer in the bathroom was Christian's.

In conclusion, as a result of this investigation and evaluation of the available evidence it was determined that Meridian Police Department's findings are accurate relating to the death of Christian Andreacchio, that he died as the result of a self-inflicted gunshot wound. From the outset of MBI's and the Attorney General's involvement it was acknowledged that some questions remained unanswered. It was the intent of this investigation to answer as many of these questions as possible and determine if any other conceivable cause of death was supported by the evidence. It is believed that the product of this investigation and additional/prior investigations into Andreacchio's death is the sole reasonable and practical termination.

REPORT OF NICHOLAS JETT MILLER INTERVIEW

MISSISSIPPI BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

On September 23, 2014, Investigator Trent Weeks with the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation and Investigators Ronnie Odom and Danny Welch with the Mississippi Attorney General's Office interviewed Nicholas Jett Miller concerning the death of Christian Andreacchio. Jett had been identified during the course of the investigation as being with Mathu Miller and Whitley Goodman the night before Andreacchio's death. The purpose of the interview was to ascertain any information he may have regarding the death of Andreacchio and the events that occurred on the night previous to his death.

Jett met investigators at the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation office located in Meridian, Mississippi. Investigators identified themselves as investigators with the Mississippi Attorney General's Office and Mississippi Bureau of Investigation and requested to speak with him. Jett voluntarily agreed to be interviewed and related the following information to questions posed by investigators:

The night before the Andreacchio death, Mathu Miller and Whitley Goodman came to his house. They arrived late in the evening around midnight and only stay for a couple hours. While there, they decided to ride in the woods near his house in his green field. He had just bought a Smith and Wesson M&P .40 caliber handgun and he asked if they wanted to shoot it. He and Mathu shot the pistol, with Jett shooting most of the rounds. Mathu got back in the truck, and he asked Whitley if she wanted to shoot. Whitley then shot one or two rounds, but he couldn't remember exactly how many. He was adamant that Whitley shot at least one or two rounds.

After they returned to his residence, Mathu and Whitley left. He did not know where they went when they left his residence. Mathu visits him frequently, but that was the first time that Whitley had ever been there. He did not know Andreacchio and didn't know Whitley very well. At this time, the interview was concluded.

REPORT OF DALLAS STEELE INTERVIEW

MISSISSIPPI BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Dallas Steele, a known associate of Whitley Goodman, was interviewed at her residence, 9064 Lake Flora Road, Meridian, MS, on August 6, 2014 by Mississippi Bureau of Investigation (MBI) Agent Trent Weeks and Attorney General's Office Investigators RJ Odom and Danny Welch. Steele was asked to relay any information of relevance concerning her knowledge of the death of Christian Andreacchio and any events she felt were pertinent to the investigation.

Steele stated that the day before Andreacchio's death she and Whitley were together and Whitley used her iPad and phone several times, she believes to text Matthu Miller. She also provided that at approximately 8:30 pm she dropped Whitley off and believes she was going to see Miller. On the night of Andreacchio's death she (Steele) picked Goodman up at the police department and they went back to Steele's residence, where they both stayed the night. Goodman stayed there for possibly three (3) days thereafter and spent a good portion of that time sleeping in Steele's room (further confirmed by Steele's stepmother Jennifer Culpepper/[REDACTED]). According to Steele, Goodman indicated that on the day of Andreacchio's death they had driven around looking at "childhood places" in the Meridian area. She also provided that Goodman left a jacket at her house and she carried this jacket to the Meridian Police Department (MPD), Meridian, MS.

CASE NUMBER: 1-14-008628
SUSPECT: CHRISTIAN ANDREACCHIO
LOCATION: 801 DEER RUN
INCIDENT: SUICIDE
OTHER PERSON: WHITLEY GOODMAN
OTHER PERSON: DYLAN SWEARINGER
REFERENCE: INITIAL REPORT
DATE: 02-26-2014

ON 02-26-2014, I RESPONDED TO 801 DEER RUN AT WILLOW RIDGE APARTMENTS IN REFERENCE TO A POSSIBLE SUICIDE. I MADE CONTACT WITH DYLAN SWEARINGER AT THE FRONT DOOR. HE SAID HIS FRIEND CHRIS WAS IN THE BATHROOM DEAD AND POINTED UPSTAIRS TO THE LOCATION. WHEN I ENTERED THE HOME MS.WHITLEY GOODMAN WAS ON THE COUCH IN TEARS OBVIOUSLY DISTRAUGHT FROM THE CURRENT SITUATION.

I WENT UPSTAIRS AND LOOKED IN THE BATHROOM SEEING A WHITE MALE WITH HIS HANDS TO HIS SIDE, FACE DOWN GOING INTO THE TUB WITH HIS BODY OUTSIDE OF IT. I COULD NOT SEE A WEAPON OR INJURIES FROM THE ANGLE I HAD. I CHECKED THE PULSE ON THE RIGHT WRIST AND COULD NOT FEEL ONE. I THEN LEANED OVER AS FAR AS I COULD TO SEE ANY INJURIES BY GRABBING THE TOWEL RACK FOR BALANCE AND LOOKED OVER THE BODY.

ALL I COULD SEE WAS DARK RED BLOOD GOING DOWN THE DRAIN, IT APPEARED TO BE COAGULATING FROM EXPOSURE. I NOTIFIED DISPATCH OF THE SITUATION AND WAITED FOR THE FIRST DETECTIVE TO ARRIVE. OFFICER'S GORDON AND ALLEN ARRIVED AT 5:04PM AND LT.MASSIE ARRIVED AT 5:05PM. THREE EMT'S FROM METRO AMBULANCE ARRIVED AT 5:08PM THE SAME TIME AS DETECTIVE WILBURN ALONG WITH OFFICER CARTER STANDING OUTSIDE THE DOORWAY.

THE FOLLOWING INVESTIGATORS ARRIVED ON SCENE AT 5:25PM DETECTIVE THOMPSON AND CLAYTON COBBLER THE COUNTY CORONER. DETECTIVE'S LATTING AND SCOTT ARRIVED AT 5:43PM. A YELLOW CRIME SCENE TAPE WAS USED TO CORDON OFF THE EXTERIOR. INVESTIGATORS TOOK PICTURES AND EVIDENCE FROM THE LOCATION FOR THE INVESTIGATION.

THE CRIME SCENE WAS PROCESSED BY INVESTIGATORS AND THE FRONT DOOR TO THE LOCATION WAS SECURED AND TAPED OFF FROM THE YARD TO THE FRONT PORCH UNTIL INVESTIGATORS RELEASED THE SCENE TO THE FAMILY MEMBERS. I GAVE THE FRONT DOOR KEY TO DETECTIVE THOMPSON WHEN RELEASED FROM THE SCENE BY ASSISTANT CHIEF SHARPE. NOTHING FURTHER TO REPORT AT THIS TIME.

Case # 1-14-008628

Victim: Christian Andreacchio

Location: 801 Deer Run

Other Person(s): Whitley Alexis Goodman, Dylan Swearingner

Incident: Suicide

Reference: Victim Ms Crime Lab report

Date: 3/27/2014

On February 26, 2014 around 1645hrs Officers responded to 801 Deer Run reference Suicide. Detectives was called to process the scene and pictures was taken and GSR (Gunshot Residue) performed on Whitley Goodman and Dylan Swearingner at the residence by Detectives. GSR was not performed on the victim Christian Andreacchio because the Mississippi State Crime Lab was going to Perform the Gunshot Residue test on his hands. On February 27, 2014 the Trace Evidence(Jackson) section at the Mississippi State Crime Lab performed the Gunshot Residue analysis and it was completed on March 19, 2014. The results from the Gunshot Residue analysis concluded, particles indicative of gunshot residue were observed to be present on the samples in Submissions 002B (Right Palm of Christian Andreacchio) and 002C(Back of left hand of Christian Andreacchio) these particles are consistent with particles present in gunshot residue. However, these indicative particles do not possess the combination of morphological characteristics and elemental composition necessary to identify them as gunshot residue to the exclusion of all other environmental sources.

No particles of gunshot residue were identified on the samples in submissions 002A(back of Right Hand of Christian Andreacchio) or 002D(left palm of Christian Andreacchio). The Mississippi State Crime Lab certified report sent to Detective Wilburn will be place in the case file.

Christian called me at 1:37 asking if I was able to come pick him up at St. Rose, Louisiana at a docking bay that his barge had stopped. I told him yes that I could pick him up. Hel told me that i needed to be there between 7:45- 8am. I left my home at 3:45am-4am on my way to get him. We exchanged a few phone calls just to touch bases and he would asked me where i was or how far from the landing area. After a couple hours or so I finally reached the destation ation that he was at. I called him when I arrived and he said give him a few moments. He came down the hill where I was parked and removed his blue jumpsuit he wore for his work. He said he had left without permission and security of the place along with sheriff were alerted but he decided to leave I have no conclusion on whether he was able to leave or if just left by self choice.

After we left the destination I picked him up at we talked like we always have. Nothing was out of the ordinary. We stopped at a gas station and got us some drinks and filled my truck up for coming to get him. As we pulled out and got back on the interstate he began to tell me that him and Whitley were having relationship issues. The issues were regarding another boy hanging out with Whitley while he was gone and he then told me this the reason for him coming home. Then we continued our route to Meridian just talking and listening to the radio.

We pulled into the apartment complex that he was living at. He noticed the BMW he bought for Whitley was there and he walked in. He began asking her where she had been because they have a tracker on each other phones. She spent the night at the boy's house that Christian earlier mentioned. His name is Matt Miller. After asking her multiple questions regarding what she had done she mentioned the usage of xanax, she was not sure some of the activity they participated. He blamed xanax for her not knowing. I stayed upstairs majority of the time due to I didn't want to interfere with their argument. I stuck my head over the stairs one moment and heard him saying over and over "Do you love me" After a few times of asking he pulled his gun out and cocked it and stuck it to his head and asked again. "Do you love me" She said yes and tried to grab the gun away from him. After awhile things calmed down and we watched a movie.

I asked him if he wanted me to go get some food and give them a moment alone. He gave me his debit card and said get some chick -fil-a and to take all of his money out of his account. I asked him was he sure and he replied yes. He also broke her phone in and earlier argument. I told him I would take the phone and see if they could fix it. I got the food and he provided me with the banking information but they said he as the account holder would have to withdrawal the money. I came back and everything was fine. We watched another movie. I noticed they were leaving and I said "Where are yall going?" he replied "to take a little ride". I fell asleep and woke up around 2 hours later. Whitley was asleep and Christian was sitting on the couch smoking a cigarette. He acted normal and I said "I'm about to go to Best Buy and look at some speakers do you need anything while I'm out?" He replied no. At an earlier time after I saw him point the gun to his head, I took the gun from him and placed it behind the curtain because he was acting very aggressive. As I left I told him I hid it due to his actions and I gave it back and told him "unload it and please don't touch it. As I left, I made it to Best Buy and talking to the car audio technician.

As I walked in I noticed he wasn't on the couch and I walked around the apartment calling him and got no answer. I walked up the stairs and noticed the bathroom light was on so I figured he was taking a shower. I knocked and said "are you alright?" Still no answer so I walked downstairs and walked into a room. that Whitley was sleeping in I told her he didn't answer me and that we need to check on him. She went back to sleep and I walked back up stairs and knocked once more. I asked aloud again "Christian? Are you OK" he didn't reply so I opened the door and I saw Christian laying face down across the tub with blood in it. I yelled Whitley, Christian is dead we have to call 911 and she screamed and ran upstairs and began holding him I then called 911 and directed them to the apartment and the police arrived and then took control of the scene and asked us to sit in the living room.

I met her when I was 18 years old in Dalewood through a mutual friend and I use to hang out at her house and smoke and stuff. I year or so went by she got really wild and then she kind of quite down and cleared her name. Another couple of years went by and I was 20 years old then one day she randomly snap chatted me while I was at work. It was a couple of days before the incident. We was just talking and catching up and I asked her about Christian and she said that they had broken up and he was seeing another girl. We came to a agreement that we was going to hang out together with a couple friends. She ended up meeting me at the Shell at Southeast and she jumped in the truck with me and we went to Jett's. We sat around watched TV, played pool and smoked and talked. Jett asked if we wanted to go shot guns and I said yea man. So we got into the truck and drove down to the pastor behind his house. We ended up shooting Jett shot me and Jett's friend shot at some cans. I pacifically asked Whitley if she wanted to shot and she said no because she is terrified of guns. After that we went back up and me and Whitley left to take her back to her car it was around 12 or so in the morning. Went back to the Shell and I asked her if she wanted to stay or drive home and she said that she wanted to stay. She came over and we ended up having sex and we went to sleep. The next morning we woke around 6:30 or 7:00 I was already late for work. I walked her to her car asked her if she was good to drive and she said yes. So we parted ways I went to work and I guess she went to Christian's. I worked from about 7:45 till 3:00 I was in Russell at the time working at a factory. I got home around 3:30pm sat on the couch watching tv and went to sleep. Woke up around 8:00 pm from a call from my cousin asking if I heard what happen to Christian. Jett told me about Christian committing Suicide and then that's when I tried to get in touch with Whitley to see what happen. She told me that Christian found out about me and her and they went to several different spots and he was upset. She said that they went back to the house and laid down and went to sleep together. She woke up to a gun shot ran up stairs and found him slumped over the tub with a bullet hole to his throat. Around 8pm I tried to call Whitley's phone got no answer and I called Dallas and I asked her if she was with Whitley and Dallas said yes Whitley is with me. I asked Dallas if I could talked After we hung up she would try to contact a couple times but I was avoiding her. So about a week goes by I hear a different story so I texted her and asked her if she found the body or did Dylan find the body? Then she said Dylan found the body. I asked her why did she tell me different story the first time. Then I asked where he was shot? Whitley said his head. She also said that Christian was talking about killing himself earlier that day. This is a statement of Mike Sims reference to the Suicide of Christian Andreacchio. This is a true and voluntary statement told by Mike Sims and type by Det. Damarcus Wilburn.

On February 26, 2014 I left work at Atlas Roofing around 3pm and I went to Medic Save Optical and ordered some glasses and then I went home and then I went to Dollar General. I made it the apartment complex around 4:15 pm I turned by the mailboxes heading to my apartment I noticed a Gold either Chevrolet or Gmc truck parked next to a Silver BMW in front of Christian Andreacchio apartment and the truck was still running. At first I thought it was the maintenance man truck but I noticed that the truck had big chrome tips of the muffler turned out behind the tires. I knew then that it was not the maintenance man truck. When I parked I was sitting in my car and I noticed that the truck pulled out of the parking space and drove down passed my apartment and went around the ben and turned around and came back and left the complex. I went into my apartment and around 5 minutes to 6pm I left out of my apartment and I saw the police so I drove by there and I saw the Detectives and the Ambulance and I knew something had happen and I left the complex.

Q: How do you know Christian Andreacchio?
A: I work for his Mom at Alliance.

Q: How did you that the Silver BMW belong to Christian Andreacchio?
A: His Mom had stated it.

Q: Did Christian Mom have you watching his apartment?

SUMMARY AND INTERPRETATION

This individual was discovered without signs of life at his residence. He has a history of depression.

At postmortem examination one gunshot wound of the head is identified with significant injury of the skull and brain. No projectile is recovered.

Based on the case history and autopsy findings it is my opinion that the cause of death is a gunshot wound of the head. The manner of death is suicide.

REQUEST FOR ANALYSIS

On 2/27/2014 it was requested that the TRACE EVIDENCE (JACKSON) section perform the following analysis: Gunshot Residue Examination (J). This examination was completed on 3/19/2014.

Examine the samples in Submission 002 for the presence of gunshot residue.

EVIDENCE

On 2/27/2014 at 2:28 PM, Forensic Scientist Melissa DeBerry received the following evidence from the MS STATE MEDICAL EXAMINER via Dennis Sanders:

Evidence Submission 002

One sealed Gunshot Residue (GSR) Evidence Collection Kit labeled "Andreacchio, Christian".

RESULTS & CONCLUSIONS

Examinations Performed: Scanning Electron Microscopy with Energy Dispersive X-ray Analysis

Particles indicative of gunshot residue were observed to be present on the samples in Submissions 002B(Right Palm - Christian Andreacchio) and 002C(Back of Left Hand - Christian Andreacchio). These particles are consistent with particles present in gunshot residue. However, these indicative particles do not possess the combination of morphological characteristics and elemental composition necessary to identify them as gunshot residue to the exclusion of all other environmental sources.

REMARKS

CERTIFIED REPORT

Gunshot residue examinations are conducted when a question arises as to whether a person has been in the environment of a discharged weapon.

The gunshot residue which is tested for at the Mississippi Crime Laboratory is produced from components of the ammunition during the process of discharging the weapon. The main elemental components of the particles are produced from the primer composition and these include Lead, Barium and Antimony.

At the time of discharge, elemental components are vaporized to a gaseous state and forced from any openings in the weapon. Upon exiting the weapon and being exposed to the cooler air, these gaseous vapors condense back to solid particles which will normally have a spherical morphology.

Normally, gunshot residue samples are collected from the hands of persons suspected of being in the environment of a discharged weapon. These samples are collected by using an aluminum stub covered with adhesive tape. The adhesive area of the stub is gently pressed to the area being sampled in order to remove any microscopic particles which may be present.

When these samples are submitted to the Mississippi Crime Laboratory, they are examined using a Scanning Electron Microscope with an Energy Dispersive X-Ray Analyzer. This instrument allows the examiner to search for microscopic particles with the characteristic particle morphology and elemental composition necessary to identify those particles as gunshot residue.

The identification of gunshot residue particles on samples from an individual indicates that person has been in the environment of a discharged weapon. (Either by firing the weapon, handling a weapon or object with gunshot residue on its surface or being in close proximity to a weapon at time of discharge.)

Several environmental factors can effect the ability to detect and identify gunshot residue particles. These include:

1. Type of Weapon
2. Type of Ammunition
3. Time Lapse between discharge of weapon and time of collection.
4. Activity of the subject between time of shooting and time of collection.
5. Collection Technique

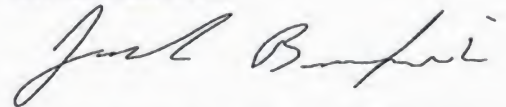

Because of factors listed above, the lack of gunshot residue on samples does not preclude the possibility that the person has been in the environment of a discharged weapon.

On September 16, 2014 Mr. Todd Andreacchio came to the MBI Troop H office. During the meeting, Todd gave Agent Weeks a knife that he discovered after cleaning out Christian and Josh's apartment. Andreacchio did not notice at the time, but later when he removed the knife out of the scabbard it appeared to have what looked like dried blood on the blade. Agent Weeks secured the knife with scabbard in an evidence box. On September 17, 2014 Agent Weeks had Forensic Scientist Stacy Jones examine the knife for possible blood. Jones findings were negative for human blood and a copy of her report is included in the case file.

I was mad I was upset I was confused and little did I kno that when I look at a picture of you I can't see myself with anyone else I can't talk to anyone else because no one else would ever understand me like you ... No one else would ever be able to kiss me like you or make me feel like I wasn't fake ... No one would let me be me and love me ... I love you Whitley I say things when I'm mad that I could never take back and that most the time I regret and wish I could but I say them because I try to make myself feel better or show ppl that I'm not weak ... When I really am .

200	Instant Messages	2/26/2014 04:41:04(UTC+0)	From: +16019175492	Idk y I ever thought I could make anyone else happy when I can't make myself happy hahh kinda funny I spend all my life chasing something keep looking up keep staying positive and your right ... It sad to say but your right we are all here on a revolving ball to hurt one another breathing to try to pretend to be happy pretend that we have everything we want fake smiles fake friends ... Love isn't real just a word we say to trick ourselves into being happy it worked but looking back at it love has done nothing but hurt me love has just tricked me into thinking this life had a point to it . Thers not we r here to die. I'm nothin more to fertilizer for the next human that walks the earth. Im sry that I led you to think any different I'm sry for all the things I have filled your head with and all the hopes and promises that seemed to mean everything but in the end mean nothing. You could have stayed with Philip Wilson and in the end nothing would be different this job the cars the clothes the money it means nothing if anything he is the only one that makes sence he has no worries no stress nothing. I work my back bone into this steal and for what so I can come home to hold paper in my hand. Im going to sleep I'm getting of the boat in the morning my bags are packed i talked to my captain and I'm coming home I'm done trying to pretend that this life is anything else then wat it really is

We're all just living to die. You hurt so much, you laughed so much, and then you die. I don't want to be so pessimistic but I'm just confused.

509	Instant Messages		2/25/2014 14:19:14(UTC+0)	From: +16016787072	You're wrong, you can let go. You just choose not to because you're afraid of it happening again. I'm not sure what's going on here, I'm not sure if I should pack up and be out of here by the time you get here. This whole time you were home this time I couldn't stop thinking this ain't gonna work this ain't gonna last because you're so different now. You had that look in your eye when we were first together, you just loved the shit out of me everything about me. You'll never let go, you've already closed your heart. Maybe I'm young. Maybe I'm not "girlfriend material" but I gave it my honest best for you. Maybe we're not right. I don't know what to do. Nothing feels right anymore nothing I do nowhere I go I'm just sad. I don't want this to be it, but for the sake of you, you need to let me go. I love you enough to say that, as much as I'll miss you. This past time you just looked so worn, so tired, and I was just excited, so full of life it was so fun to me. And that's where I realized this will never get better. I not sugarcoating or leaving out anything I need to say right now, this is from my heart. For the past two months we've just been so distant, and I lose my courage so quickly so easily and I haven't on us. You know when there's an issue I typically A) avoid it or B) impulsively jump to a decision bc I don't want to feel the feeling I'm getting from that situation. I want to know what's going in. Can we make it? Can you make it?

518	Instant Messages		2/25/2014 12:20:15(UTC+0)	From: +16019175492	I found your message from the mountains lastnight I layed in bed and cried all night because idk what to do anymore you seem like you don't want this like you are just holding on to something that inside u have already let go. The things that have brought me down in life will never leave my memories the difference between me and you is that you can let things go and they want bother you you can go each day and the scars you don't think about fade mine never do I hurt I put up a good front and I act like I have everything figured out I act like I'm ok but I'm not I am not happy wih myself because no one else is happy with me . And to me myself pity hurts me worse then anyone else could ever begin to . I can't let anything fade I carry the blame from others on my shoulders even when I kno it's not my fault . That's y I'm not affraid to die because in my eyes no matter how hard I try ill never be wat someone else wants. To die is a wish that I could never turn down I have took chances and played the odds against me and I don't ever die I'd pull the tigger on myself in a heart beat but I'd be scared that someone else would blame it on themselves . I want a car to hit me or a 18 wheeler to pull out in front of me . I want to slip an fall into the cold water an gasp water into my lounges I want to end I wish I was saying that to be funny or to be dramatic but I'm not . Idk wat needs to happen idk where we need to go idk weather to break up or hold on idk wat I do to make you happy or my mom happy or anyone else I am standing here with tears rolling down my face watching my life smolder in ash and wondering wat I did to get here my relationships are all fucked I have no one no friends no family nothing ... Idk wat direction to step witch one is right and witch one is wrong I don't kno ... I'm so sad and mad that I can't be happy and I am at my breaking point and idk what I'm supposed to do anymore to be happy I don't kno ... It makes me so mad because as much as I wish I had cheated on u or talked to another girl I haven't as much as I would love to see you hurt I could never do it no matter how mad you have made me I still have nothing but love for you but I hate and despise it so much because I'm incapable of understanding you and the love that you supposably have for me I have Tried but I just can't comprehend it and that's y I question it

Make me not want to move any further. Make my heart ache. Things that have been done to me, things that I have done. We are young. We can move on, we still have so much to live for. We have such a long life ahead of us. Whether its alone or together, I want you to know you're such a special person and you do not deserve anything you've went through. You have this hateful reflection of yourself. you're a free spirit I want to be happy. I know you christian, i know you from bottom to top inside out. And not many people do, but i do and youre a great person. Youre hilarious, youre cute, youre sweet, and you mean well. You're living upon scars in your heart and its too soon. Scars fade, ask my eyebrow, ask my leg, ask my arm. They do. Theyre still there but theyve faded and ive forgot about them. I see them, but i dont think back to how they got there. Thats how it is. Whether we make it or we dont i want you to go out and live. see the beautiful things in life. Meet good people. Watch it snow, watch leaves fall, watch leaves grow. watch the sun come up, feel the salty water on your toes and be grateful that youre still alive. Look in the mirror and smile at your reflection because you deserve that. I'll love you forever

It sad to say but your right we are all here on a revolving ball to hurt one another breathing to try to pretend to be happy pretend that we have everything we want fake smiles fake friends ... Love isn't real just a word we say to trick ourselves into being happy it worked but looking back at it love has done nothing but hurt me love has just tricked me into thinking this life had a point to it . Thers not we r here to die. I'm nothin more to fertilizer for the next human that walks the earth. Im sry that I led you to think any different I'm sry for all the things I have filled your head with and all the hopes and promises that seemed to mean everything but in the end mean nothing. You could have stayed with Philip Wilson and in the end nothing would be different this job the cars the clothes the money it means nothing if anything he is the only one that makes sence he has no worries no stress nothing. I work my back bone into this steal and for what so I can come home to hold paper in my hand. Im going to sleep I'm getting of the boat in the morning my bags are packed i talked to my captain and I'm coming home I'm done trying to pretend that this life is anything else then wat it really is

We're all just living to die. You hurt so much, you laughed so much, and then you die. I don't want to be so pessimistic but I'm just confused.
